

FDAImports.com Announces Strategic Partnership with Global Food Safety Forum (GFSF)

Press Release

Columbia, MD 3.29.2012

FDAImports.com has announced a strategic partnership with Global Food Safety Forum (GFSF), a non-profit organization focused on educational services and training in food safety for Asia. This partnership comes at a time when imports from China are booming while simultaneously regulations and rules are increasing, thanks to the recently enacted Food Safety Modernization Act. FDAImports.com will be working together with GFSF to provide information, training, educational products and briefings aimed at helping manufacturers and exporters in Asia with standards, certification and compliance requirements.

Alex Lin, Director of GFSF stated, "We are delighted to launch this new service. FSMA poses special challenges for suppliers and FDAImports.com is a preeminent firm in the field." Rick Quinn, Principal at FDAImports.com stated, "GFSF will serve as an ideal public-private platform to facilitate trade that meets the food safety and quality grade."

More information can be found at <http://www.fdainports.com/about/partners/index.php>

About GFSF

Global Food Safety Forum is a non-profit industry organization, offering educational services in food safety in Asia, partially under sponsorship of the US Department of Agriculture. Contact: Alex Lin, Director, (703) 684-1366 or alexlin(at)gicgroup.com

About FDAImports.com

FDAImports.com is an FDA consulting firm helping U.S. and foreign companies navigate through and meet complex FDA regulations for marketing and importing foods, dietary supplements, drugs, cosmetics and medical devices. Benjamin L. England, Founder and CEO, is a former 17-year veteran of the FDA and served as the Regulatory Counsel to the Associate Commissioner for Regulatory Affairs. Contact: Jon Barnes, (410) 740-3403 or pr(at)fdainports.com.

###